The Lure and the Lore of the Price Tag Being a Few Statements Concerning December Coat and Suit Sale Economies

We would like everybody to know that we don't care how the price tags on our clothing look so long as they are true.

If, in this December Sale, we have so large a stock of clothing the prices of which are really one-third to one-half less than the actual values, it is not because we want to have these things to print in the papers, but because the figures are facts, responsibly warranted so by this house.

There are legitimate trade reasons for these reductions, the changing of the wholesaler's season, their winter stocks to be disposed of, such as brought us many choice suits and coats—the clearing of an entire lot at once or the purchase of quantities, as well as the unalterable rule of this store to close out every garment regardless of cost or loss when case warrants it.

On the other hand, there are many fine garments here that have been lowered just 10 per cent, some twenty per cent, while others are not reduced at all, for instance these Ural Astrachan Coats, and—let this be printed in large type.

that is the best tribute that could be paid them

Take Your Choice From Hundreds of the Finest Coats and Suits in the City and Pay a Third to Half Less Than Regular

The month-end sale for December started this morning and will continue Monday 30th, and Tuesday 31st, at which time we will offer at fractional prices the remaining stock of coats, suits, skirts, dresses etc.

The way people started off buying this morning places beyond all doubt the importance of the disposal.

Let it be remembered, nevertheless that the sale has only begun, and that Monday and Tuesday will be two busy days in which you'll have your opportunity if you fail to get here today.

The great stock of Suits is divided into three large groups and priced as follows:

Suits Marked $13.75 to $21.50 now $9.90

Suits Marked 25.00 to 30.00 now 13.90

Suits Marked 35.00 to 40.00 up now 23.90

All of these Suits are fine Serges in Black, Blue and Grey; Brown Diagonals, plain and two-tone. Broadcloths, Velvet and Corduroy. All are as good as they are scarce; sizes 14 to 18 and 34 to 44. Every suit a Parsons-Souders Suit of highest standard at the larger prices.

The group at $23.90 are our splendid "System Tailored" Suits of which there is no superior—equal in every way to finest custom made.

SOCIAL

Christmas Dinner.

Mrs. Katherine Teter, of Oral, entertained at an old fashioned 12 o'clock dinner Christmas at Bridgeport. Despite the fact that Mrs. Teter is 84 years of age, she planned, cooked and served the dinner herself. When the guests were invited into dine their eyes were met with a table "fit to sit before a king." The dinner was a real feast and all the dainties were present that only good old-fashioned grandmothers can make. All the grand old china, glass and silverware that have long been heirlooms in the family were brought into use. The day was certainly one of great enjoyment for all the guests and congratulations were showered upon Mrs. Teter.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Teter and children, Kathryn and Robert; Mrs. Martha Shields, Dayton Shields, John W. Bailey, and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McCartney.

Entertains Young People.

A recent evening the Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Stevens, of Bridgeport, entertained a few young people in honor of their daughter, Miss Myrtle, of Mountsville, and their sons, George and Warden, of Benwood, who are spending the holiday season with them. Games and music furnished entertainment for the evening after which cake and coffee were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughters, Myrtle and Mabel.

Those who enjoyed the evening were Miss Hazel Teter, Miss Edna Thompson, Miss Ocie Dean, Miss Marguerite Johnson, Miss Rebecca Johnson, Miss Ethel Heckert, Miss Kathleen Warner, Miss Mabel Stevens, Miss Hazel Nelson, of Marietta; Donley Taylor, Thomas White, James Davidson, Lawrence Dolan, Benjamin Stout Jr., Robert Willis, Fay Higginbotham, Wisman Davidson, of Zanesville, and the honor guests.

Married in Whiting.

Announcement is made that Mr. George C. Wilt, of Grafton, and Miss Sarah Smith, of Mt. Clare, were married in Wheeling Saturday last. They then went to the bride's home and remained there until Christmas evening, when a dinner was given to many guests. The happy couple then went to Grafton to spend a few days with the bridegroom's parents and sister, Mrs. C. M. Painter, after which they will leave for their honeymoon in New York, Niagara Falls and Canada, and then go to Pittsburgh where the bride was a leading dressmaker the last six months. They will reside there and Mr. Wilt will go into business for himself. The bride's parents are expected to visit at Grafton tomorrow before the couple leaves there.

Annual Banquet.

One of the social affairs of last evening was the annual banquet of the Sigma Chi fraternity, which was held in the cafe of the Waldo hotel from 8 to 11 o'clock. Christmas decorations were used at the handsomely appointed table augmented by crimson tapers in silver holders. Harry D. Curtin was the gracious toastmaster and brief and witty responses were made by several of the members.

At the close of this delightful affair a unanimous vote was carried that invitations to the ladies will always be extended to the next annual dinners.

Covers were laid for Dr. Cecil C. Jarvis, Will E. Morris, Roy E. Parrish, George Curtin, Charles W. Louchery, W. G. Stathers, Benjamin B. Jarvis, Stephen G. Jackson, George M. Osborn, E. D. Lewis and Harry D. Curtin.

Holds Party.

Miss Hazel Teter entertained a number of her friends Thursday evening in her handsome new home on Philadelphia avenue at Bridgeport. Games and music were the pleasant diversions after which Mrs. B. C. Teter, mother of the hostess, and Mrs. William Bartlett served cake, coffee and fruits.

The guest list included Miss Hazel Nelson, of Marietta, O.; Miss Marguerite Johnson, Miss Ethel Heckert, Miss Daisy Morris, Miss Hallie Heckert, Miss Rebecca Johnson, Miss Lucile Stout, James Johnson, Joseph Johnson, Jr., James Davidson, Lawrence Dolan, Benjamin Stout, Jr., Fay Higginbotham, John Davidson, Donley Taylor, Robert Willis, Robert Faris, and Wisman Davidson, of Zanesville, O.

Dinner Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon B. Late, of Bridgeport, pleasantly entertained a few friends Thursday evening at a beautifully appointed 6 o'clock dinner in honor of Mrs. Late's sister, Mrs. Kittie Nelson, and daughter, Miss Hazel, of Marietta, O., it being the eighteenth anniversary of the latter's birth.

Lighted candles, greenery and cut flowers comprised the decorations.
